A scenic landscape painting of a riverbank. In the foreground, a wooden boat is beached on a sandy shore. The middle ground shows a calm river reflecting the sky. The background features a dense forest of trees and a bright, hazy sky. The overall style is soft and atmospheric, characteristic of 19th-century landscape art.

Upton Images

Past and Present

Oldest House in Upton

Built in 1725 by David Tyler

Warren Tavern

Perham-Warren Tavern, known as the World's Largest Tavern before it was divided up into seven homes moved around in West Upton. In 1885, Knowlton dismantled the Tavern and a substantial section was moved to 21 Hartford Avenue South for housing.

Old First Cemetery

Located off Grove
St. Est. in 1735

Downtown Upton 1830

1st Hat Shop (Stoddard & Wm. Knowlton) across from the Town Hall on Warren Street

Hotel Pleasant, West Upton

Knowlton Hat Factory

Built in 1872 at 134 Main St. At one time was the largest women's hat factory in the world. National Historic Register in 1982. Photo from 1908

The Dormitory Lodge

Town Hall

Built in 1888 at 1 Main St. National Historic Register in 1999.

Upton Historical Walking Tour

Brochure available at Upton Historical Society Museum in Risteen Library Building

[http://www.blackstonedaily.com/Outdoors&Nature/WTupton.
htm.](http://www.blackstonedaily.com/Outdoors&Nature/WTupton.htm)

