PROCEEDINGS OF THE STATE ELECTION NOVEMBER 3, 1914.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS.

Worcester, ss.

Pursuant to the foregoing Warrant, the legal voters of the town of Upton met in Caucus Hall, town building, in said Upton, on Tuesday, the third day of November, A. D. 1914, it being the first Tuesday after the first Monday, punctually at 6 o'clock forenoon, and was called to order by the Town Clerk, who then read the Warrant and the officer's return thereon.

In accordance with the provisions of Chapter 560, Acts of 1907, the cards of instruction and specimen ballots having been posted, a package of ballots (said to contain 550) were delivered to the proper officer and a receipt given to the Town Clerk.

The ballot-box to be used at all elections was opened in public meeting and shown to the voters present to be empty. The register of the box being set on 0000, the box was then locked and the keys thereof were delivered to William F. Parshley, constable in attendance at said meeting.

Thomas J. Gorman, Jefferson H. Lyford, Michael Murphy and Frank O. Odgen having been appointed election officers for this meeting, they were sworn to faithfully perform the duties of their office by the Town Clerk.

The seals of the package of ballots were broken and the ballots were delivered to the proper officers.

The polls at 6.05 a. m., were then declared open for the reception of ballots for state officers.

During the voting the ballot-box was opened four times and ballots taken therefrom for the purpose of counting.

Charles W. Childs, James F. Sheehan, Frank D. Aldrich and William J. Gorman having been appointed by the Selectmen, tellers to canvass the vote, were duly sworn to perform the duties of their office by the Town Clerk, after which the first block of ballots were given to them.

Voted: To close the polls at 4 o'clock P. M.

At 2 o'clock P. M. on the above mentioned third day of November, at the same place, the above described legal voters acted upon the following articles in the warrant.

The moderator, Appleton P. Williams, called the meeting to order; the Town Clerk read that part of the warrant that related to town affairs.

REPORTS.

Article 1. Passed over this article as no reports were offered.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

Article 2. The moderator asked for information, why it was necessary to make this extra appropriation. Mr. Miskell, chairman of the selectmen, said in part that the fire on North Main street last May was the reason; that the extra expense in asking outside help, Milford cost about $100.00 and $60.00 for Hopedale, and as there was hose belonging to W. K. & Sons' fire department that was damaged which had to be replaced, he thought that the money was needed.

Voted: On motion by Mr. Miskell that the town appropriate the sum of three hundred and fifty ($350.00) dollars for the fire department.

SUPPORT OF POOR.

Article 3. Mr. Edward B. Newton of the Board of Overseers, in explaining the reason for asking for this appropriation, said in part that the board had now overrun their appropriation, $375.00, that the new laws had added extra demands for money, and he thought they would need $1,000.00 more if they were expected to not overrun their appropriation.

Voted: To appropriate one thousand ($1,000.00) dollars for support of poor.

Mr. Miskell asked for an informal vote regarding the salary of the member of the Board of Overseers who does the clerical and outside work, that the new laws had made additional work. It was an oversight that an article was not put in the warrant asking that the selectmen be instructed to pay $25.00 additional. It was voted that the member of the board who had to do all the extra work demanded by the state receive $25.00 additional salary.

Voted: To dissolve so much of the warrant as relates to town affairs.

Due notice having been given, the polls were at 4 o'clock P. M. declared closed.

The names of those on the check-lists both at the polls and at the table of the ballot clerks having been checked, were compared and found as follows:

List at polls.....	346
List at table.....	346

The remaining ballots were then taken from the ballot-box and audibly counted, making the total number of ballots cast therein 346.

REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS.

TO THE SCHOOL COMMITTEE OF UPTON:

GENTLEMEN.

Herewith is presented my third annual report as superintendent of your schools it being the twenty-fourth since the formation of the union with Grafton.

Financially, the year has been an unusual one. The state law requiring towns to close their books on December thirty-first resulted in taking from our school resources over a thousand dollars, the amount received in the past from the Massachusetts School Fund. In addition to this there have been unexpected and extensive repairs needed. Because of a change in investment the Knowlton Fund has also produced a less amount for the year 1914 only. Notwithstanding all the above the year has been closed with an overdraft much less than the total of the items just mentioned. Consequently the town should have the feeling that you have ministered to the affairs of the schools carefully and economically. If there is any progress made there must necessarily be an increase in expense. I have made some comparisons between the expenditures of the town for the twelve months ending Feb. 1, 1904 and Feb. 1, 1914 that being the last full fiscal year for which the data is available.

	1904	1914	Increase	Decrease
Town Library	$ 360 00	$ 423 97	18%
School Department
Net cost to town	5,974 29	6,995 03	17%
Poor Department	3,252 54	2,918 52		11%
Roads and Bridges	2,058 06	3,499 29	70%
Fire Department	651 98	749 34	15%
Fire Wardens	115 96	254 99	119%
Street Lights	646 26	1,650 00	154%
Town Officers	1,097 95	1,298 83	18%
	$14,157 04	$17,789 97	25½ %

From the above it will be seen that only two departments in town have had less increase than the schools, the poor department and the fire department.

The larger amount used by the schools was under the following heads:—

Salaries of teachers	12.7 per cent.
Salaries of superintendent	7.1 per cent.
Fuel	6.7 per cent.
Care of buildings	26.7 per cent.
Transportation	108. per cent.
Supplies of books	9. per cent.
Repairs	22. per cent.
Miscellaneous5 per cent.

The last report of the State Board of Education gives the average cost per pupil a year in the state as $40.41, the average cost in towns with a population of less than 5000, $38.76. In that report the expense in Upton is given as $32.33. This is 16 1-2 per cent. less than the average for towns under five thousand and practically 20 per cent. less than that for the state. And yet, Upton is appropriating a large proportion of her total tax levy for the schools. It would seem that relief must come from the Commonwealth, since Massachusetts as a state gives less for education than almost any other in the Union.

The table given below is of interest:

SCHOOL YEAR 1913-14.

High School	Cost per pupil high school instruction	Cost per pupil high school support exclusive of instruction	Average membership
* Hadley	$98 00	$ 37 00	51
Leicester	65 00	36 00	62
* Ashland	48 00	22 00	54
Holden	45 00	13 00	62
Foxboro	45 00	14 00	80
* Norwell	42 00	22 00	52
Uxbridge	41 00	26 00	87
Norton	40 00	13 00	58
* Essex	38 00	10 00	59
Hopkinton	35 00	27 00	78
Townsend	33 00	12 00	69
UPTON	27 00	16 00	63
Holliston	27 00	7 00	83

The towns starred receive from the state five hundred dollars annually toward the expense of the high school.

Upton High School certainly needs more money to carry on the work that other schools of approximately the same size are doing. There is a bill before the present Legislature to provide for a readjustment of the method of distribution of state funds to the local schools. When that bill is up for a hearing Upton should be strongly represented. The high school ought to receive from the Commonwealth assistance in meeting its expenses, but under the present law, as long as there are over five hundred families in town, it can not do so.

This does not imply serious criticism of the work of our school, for it is doing work that is satisfactory to the New England College Entrance Board, as is evidenced by the fact that last May the certificate privilege was renewed for three years largely on the record of one of our 1913 graduates.

Under the principalship of Mr. Roy V. Swain the high school this year has made a gratifying advancement in every way. A new course of study has been provided, a copy of which is given in the appendix. While there is freedom of elective there are required four years of English and at least three of some other subject, so that any graduate has a comprehensive understanding of two subjects at least, and has not scattered his energies over so wide a field that he has only a foundation in several. The doing away with the half credit has resulted in improving the grade of work done at the school. Commissioner P. P. Claxton of the United States Bureau of Education says in a recent publication: "Probably the most important phase in public education in the United States at present is that of the secondary schools. The high school is or should be the heart and center of our school system. The problems of the high school are more difficult and their solution more urgent than those of any other part of the school system."

Our school is trying to solve some of the problems, but the lack of funds prevents its reaching its highest usefulness to the community. For those who are going to higher institutions to prepare themselves for a life work we must give a certain training. For those who complete their educational training in this school we must necessarily give the same work. Under present conditions it does not seem that this can be helped.

Pupils in the high school should be making plans for their life work. To determine whether they did in the spring a circular was given to each pupil asking such questions as these:—

- What have you planned to do after leaving school?
- What is your preference for a life work?
- Why did you make this choice?
- Why do you think you are adapted to it?
- What are the requirements to enter it?
- What is the cost?
- What can you expect as a reward?

On compiling the result it was found that not over 10 per cent. had any definite ideas at all upon the subject. This is a serious matter and should have the attention of the parents as well as the teachers. In fact, high school work is or ought to be solid strength giving labor. But our pupils do not realize it. By looking at the table statistics given earlier in this report you will see that in the high school for the year ending June 30, 1914, there were 860 cases of absence, or nearly five for every day the school was in session. The average membership was 63.3, so that one pupil in thirteen was out every day. There were 521 cases of tardiness, or nearly three per day. Some pupils were tardy over twenty times. There were 95 dismissals, or one each two days. Taking the total, we find that the average number of pupils losing some school work every day in the high school was nine, or one in seven. This too, in the majority of cases, on the written authority of the parent. Only one pupil, Ruth True, was not absent, tardy nor dismissed through the year.

What pupils learn in their text books is not of as much importance as the habits which they have inculcated during their school life. But no shop, mill or office can turn out a finished product if one in seven of its force is absent part of each day. In fact, it would not retain such a force. The boy or girl who in high school gets habits of shiftlessness, for there is no other word that describes it, is going to be badly handicapped when he or she starts out in life. Our present force of teachers in the high school is faithful, loyal, painstaking and interested in the work of the school and of the pupils. Nevertheless, it is difficult for them to accomplish all that they wish unless the parents will assist them in impressing upon the minds of the pupils the idea that getting an education is the all important object for them, and that outside interests should not interfere with it. When that is done, then can we hope to secure better results in our secondary school.

The work of the grades has been along the line of last year, with, however, a higher standard of discipline as a whole. We have in our corps today but one teacher who was with us in September, 1913. The new instructors as they came in have taken up the work with enthusiasm, and the results are gratifying.

The teachers and pupils of the Knowlton school deserve the praise and thanks of the community. When a school of a hundred children can purchase and present to the town a piano within six months from the time the thought presented itself to them, we can surely not complain of lack of community spirit. Correspondence relative to this will be found in the appendix.

With hearty appreciation of the deep interest which you, the members of the committee, have taken in the administration of the affairs of the school department, and with thanks for the loyal support given by the teachers, this report is

Respectfully submitted,

REPORT OF PRINCIPAL OF HIGH SCHOOL.

MR. T. H. DECOUDRES, SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS:—

Dear Sir:—I have the honor of submitting my first report as Principal of the Upton High School. As my connection with the school commenced in September, 1914, my report will cover the first half of the present school year.

The following is the enrollment by classes:

Class.	Boys.	Girls.	Total.
Seniors	4	4	8
Juniors	4	8	12
Sophomores	5	16	21
Freshmen	8	18	26
	21	46	67

Eight pupils have left since the opening of school in September.

The two lower classes are following the courses that were arranged last year, but the two upper classes have been allowed to elect subjects which they have not previously taken. The following is the present enrollment by courses:—

	General.	Scientific.	College Prep.
Juniors	4	6	0
Sophomores	6	7	7
Freshmen ..	18	0	4
	31	16	12

Twelve pupils are planning to take up advanced studies after finishing their high school course. As this number is very small, I would recommend a change in the courses so that the majority of the pupils, who expect to end their studies with their present high school course, will be better prepared for the duties of life. I would recommend that courses in mechanic arts and domestic arts be added to our present courses. These courses could be maintained at a very small expense; in fact, I believe the latter course could be made practically self-supporting with the exception of the teacher's salary. The latter expense in all probability will be a necessity if the enrollment increases, which is very probable, as the graduating class is small and the eighth grade is large. This will mean that a third assistant will be required, according to the proposed regulations regarding the approval of high schools for the privilege of certification to state normal schools, which is as follows: "Exclusive of the principal, the number of teachers shall be such that the ratio of pupils enrolled in the school to teachers does not exceed twenty-five." This difficulty may be overcome by employing one or two teachers for part time service.

We have tried to hold the pupils up to a high standard of work. The pupils who have maintained an average of E in any study will be exempt from final examination in that study. This has been an incentive for many to do their best.

In order that the pupils may have access to periodicals that will give them information on the current events and progress of the world in the arts and sciences, a magazine club has been organized which is supported by contributions from the teachers and pupils.

I wish to take this opportunity to thank the parents who have shown an interest in the school work. I have enjoyed meeting them and talking over the work of their children. I wish all of the parents would show more interest and co-operate with us in helping the pupils to obtain that development of mind and character which makes the highest type of manhood and womanhood.

The building was repaired and cleaned in September, and it has been kept in a clean and sanitary condition. There are some repairs and changes that need to be made before next fall.

In conclusion, I wish to thank the school committee for their ever ready support and assistance, and you, Mr. De Coudres, for your ever helpful advice and suggestions. I wish, also, to thank the assistants, Miss Foss and Miss Mansell, for their earnestness in co-operating with me in all of the school work.

Respectfully submitted,
ROY V. SWAIN.

REPORT OF SUPERVISOR OF MUSIC AND DRAWING.

MR. T. H. DE COUDRES, SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS:—

Dear Sir:—The problem of supervising the music and drawing in the schools remains unchanged. As there are at the present time but two teachers who were members of the force last June, it is apparent that progress in these special subjects was somewhat retarded during the fall term. Taken as a whole, however, the standard of work has not fallen below that of the previous year, and in one or two of the rooms the conditions for improvement are more favorable.

The singing in the third and fourth grades in both the Knowlton and Center schools is noticeably improving. The former school is so much smaller this year that it enables the teacher to do a large amount of individual work with the pupils. This is of the utmost importance, as the foundation for good reading in the higher grades can only be secured by this means. One rarely finds pupils lacking in interest who have been taught to read music well. These pupils when unable to sing often become our best listeners and critics. "Music is irresistible," says Thackeray. "It stirs the feeling of love, peace and friendship as scarce any mortal agent can." The moral effect of good singing in our schools can hardly be overestimated. I have seen sullen and disagreeable expressions on the faces of rebellious pupils wholly change during the singing lesson.

In the High School since September we have been obliged to confine our singing to the few familiar copies which were found suitable to the various conditions of the voices at the present time. Many of the boys are limited to the use of an octave or less, and as there seems to be no leading voice among them, part singing has been difficult to sustain. The new High School Song Book that we are soon to have will not only give us an interesting variety of songs for study, but these are also especially arranged to suit the compass of immature voices.

In the department of drawing and handicraft it has been our endeavor to develop in each pupil through the interest in "doing things" an appreciation of skill that he may learn to discriminate between real worth and the lack of it. Although the drawings in many instances are far from what we wish them to be, they represent certain ideas to the pupils which are to be carried into actual construction, and will improve in proportion to the interest taken in the making of them.

Many of the articles made have been exhibited during the year, and nearly all of them were purchased by the pupils as soon as they were completed. It has been our aim to display a fine quality of workmanship in a few well chosen projects, rather than a bewildering variety of rapidly and poorly made objects, and the results testify to the measure of our success. Many of the articles woven by the third and fourth grade pupils are as dainty and skillfully fashioned as could be desired. The reed trays and baskets made by the fifth and sixth grade boys were also well fashioned.

At the present time we are making some very interesting and useful objects from heavy cardboard covered with attractive colored papers. These projects offer opportunities for studying decorative as well as constructive design, and add greater interest in the execution of neat brush work.

As a great measure of my success depends upon the work of the teachers, I wish to express my appreciation of their efforts as well as acknowledge my obligation to you and all others who have contributed to the work of the Year.

Respectfully submitted,

FLORA M. RANDALL.

REPORT OF SUPERVISOR OF WOOD WORK.

MR. THOMAS H. DE COUDRES, SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS:—

Dear Sir:—Herewith is presented my fourth report of the manual training work in the public schools of Upton. Our work during the past year has been carried on along much the same lines as previously. In fact, the time is so limited that it would be impossible to carry on more advanced lines of work. Each class has but three-quarters of an hour to work per week. We endeavor to give the boys a good, thorough course in sawing, boring, spoke-shaving and planing. This course is, without a doubt, valuable, and helps the boys "find themselves," as we express it. In other words, a boy soon finds whether or not he would like to follow wood-working for a vocation. It trains the boy to be careful, as he works to exact measurements, and it gives him more or less skill in the use of the common tools. This enables him to do odd jobs around the home, thus saving needless expense.

Our room is now well lighted and heated. The electric lights have saved many pieces of lumber, as previously, on dark days, the boys would plane below the lines without seeing them.

During the past year the boys have made or are at present making the following: Keyboards, marble boards (for the school use in the lower grades), sleeve boards, taborets, fern stands, foot stools and jardiniere stands. One boy is making a bookcase and another a medicine chest. These projects take, at least, a year, giving the time we do, to make. I doubt if some are finished, as they should be. We are sorely in need of more time. We should either give at least one and one-half hours per week in the grades or extend the work into the freshmen class of the high school and give three hours per week there. We could then carry out larger projects, or change to a different and equally as practical line of woodwork, the executing of school projects. We would, however ground the upper grammar grades as at present in the rudiments of woodwork.

I find the boys intensely interested in their work. They strive hard to do good work, and take that as a goal to be reached rather than speed. They know that speed comes with skill. I feel that we have much to encourage us in the outlook for the coming year.

I wish to thank Miss Randall for her co-operation and the teachers for their assistance with the drawing.

Respectfully submitted,

DANA A. STANLEY,

Manual Training Instructor.

REPORT OF SEWING INSTRUCTOR.

MR. THOMAS H. DE COUDRES, SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS:—

Dear Sir:—I herewith present my first report of sewing in the public schools of Upton.

The object of the work has been to give pupils a careful training in plain sewing and to cultivate habits of neatness and industry, and to encourage pupils to help at home.

Some good results were noted in the fall, when many pupils reported mending, fancy work, cutting and making, done during vacation.

As many different operations as possible have been taught in making one article in order to keep the expense of material low.

The average lesson should be at least an hour. Grades 7 and 8 should have more than an hour. At present the average lesson is less than three-quarters of an hour. With thirty-six lessons in the year, this means about three days of eight hours each. How much sewing can be done by an experienced person in three days?

The average cost of material is 90 cents for grades 7 and 8, and 75 cents for grades 5 and 6.

Course of study, grades 5 and 6:—

Stitches and operations, basting, overhanding, combination stitch, back stitch, hemming, catch stitch, outlining, measuring, turning hems, sewing on band, sewing on lace, hemming on patch.

Articles:—Pin disk, holder, dish towel, duster, bag, handkerchief case, apron, night dress.

Grades 7 and 8:—Stitches and operations. Review:—Buttonholes, hemstitching, feather stitch, satin stitch, chain stitch, eyelets, blanket stitch, darning. Designing:—Letters and embroidery patterns, putting in draw strings, darning stockings and tears, sewing on buttons, patching, making mitred corners, bias facings and plackets.

Articles:—Pillowcase, bag or fancy apron, night dress or apron, collar, skirt.

Optional work:—Kimona, dress, aprons, towels.

All parents and friends are invited to classes Wednesday afternoons:—

Knowlton School, 1 P. M. to 1.30 P. M.

High School, 1.45 to 2.30 P. M.

Center School, 2.45 to 3.30 P. M.

I wish to thank the parents for their interest and co-operation in the providing of the materials asked for. A pupil who has good materials at the time needed is sure of good results.

Respectfully submitted,

MELORA E. WARNER,

Sewing Instructor.

English is required throughout the course, the other subjects are elective, but to be approved for graduation a candidate must have had in addition to English three years of either language, mathematics or science. Those in the college preparatory course should carefully study the requirements of the particular college they are to enter. At least four subjects must be taken in each of the four years.

A unit is a year's work in one subject. A diploma will be given for fifteen units. The passing mark is seventy per cent., but pupils who wish to be certificated to higher institutions must attain a rank of eighty per cent. It is possible to obtain a diploma in three years if five studies are taken each year and a rank of eighty per cent. is received in at least three of that five.

Electives are to be made in June and may not be changed except on the advice of the principal. Subjects may be elected from lower years if programme allows. Electives must have the approval of the parents and the principal. No new classes will be formed in subjects not required for admission to higher schools for less than :—

Five pupils in grade.....	XI

Except by order of the Superintendent of Schools.

For the benefit of parents it seems advisable to state that a pupil cannot do satisfactory work if less than two hours of home study is given in preparation for daily work.

The overdraft is due to the fact that we received no money from the State, as all accounts were closed on Jan. 1st. instead of Feb. 1st. It amounted last year to $1,022.51. However the year was only 11 months instead of 12, so that our expenditures were less in the aggregate. The income of the Knowlton fund is now $451.24, but it is made in two payments and as the last payment is after January 1st, we did not receive it in time to include in our resources.
